

SK Textile Partners with Standard Textile To Open Las Vegas Manufacturing

Industry Leaders Continue Expansion

CINCINNATI, OHIO – October 10, 2012 – SK Textile, a custom fabricator of drapery, bedding and accessories, has partnered with Standard Textile, the international textile leader in the healthcare and hospitality industries, to open a new manufacturing facility in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The manufacturing facility will provide improved convenience and efficiency for SK Textile's clients in Las Vegas. The Las Vegas facility allows SK Textile to better support local hotels, purchasing companies, and designers in providing customized interior solutions for the hospitality industry. Additionally, the company is better positioned to respond quickly to increasing demand and deliver the best to its growing customer base in Las Vegas.

"We are experiencing a very exciting period of growth and expansion in Las Vegas," said Kim Heiman, President of SK Textile. "The manufacturing facility in Las Vegas will help SK Textile meet market demand and establishes a presence near our customers."

SK Textile's proven ability to fabricate customized drapery, bedding, and accessories is known throughout the industry. Its partnership with Standard Textile allows SK Textile to leverage Standard Textile's vertically integrated global infrastructure and positions SK Textile for additional growth.

The latest state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in Las Vegas became fully operational this week and will serve to augment SK Textile's current production capacity in Vernon, California.
